

Messages from your Local Public Librarians

Hello Clearfield County Residents,

I am reaching out to you because you all fall into the Clearfield County Public Library service area. I want to share with you the services that the Clearfield County Public Library and Curwensville Public Library are offering during the pandemic.

Anyone can sign up for a library card by visiting our website www.clearfieldcountypubliclibrary.org. The link to sign up is on the home page under the heading "Going On Now!" I encourage everyone, not only students, to use this. With a library card you can access our online materials including Overdrive and RBDigital eBook and eAudiobook collections as well as PowerLibrary. Links to these resources can be found on the home page as well.

We will also be looking into starting virtual programming in the near future, so I encourage everyone to follow us on Facebook @clearfieldcountypubliclibrary.

Feel free to pass this information onto your classmates and their families.

Thank you,
Kayla F. Clark
Library Director

AND

Greetings Centre County Residents,

I hope this email finds you well. I would like to share with you the services that the Centre County and Historical Museum is offering during the pandemic.

Anyone regardless of their county can sign up for a library card by visiting the library's website at www.centrecountylibrary.org. The link to sign up for a library card is on the home page under Library Closure FAQs. With a library card you can access free online resources which are available under the Stuff for Adults, and Stuff for kids' tabs.

The Library is currently holding its 35th Annual Young Author and Illustrators contest for youth in grades first through sixth. Information on how to enter is located under the Young Author and Illustrators tab.

My Best,
Theresa M. Hutton
